

On Sunday, November 9th, the South Florida Pride Wind Ensemble will present their fall concert, “Song and Dance” at 7:30 p.m. on the Amaturro Theatre stage of the Broward Center for the Performing Arts. This concert will feature symphonic dances of virtually every kind as well as some popular songs of all genres.

Several dance studios and vocal soloists will join the wind ensemble as they prove once again that there is nothing ordinary about South Florida Pride Wind Ensemble concerts. Special lighting, backdrops and lots of surprises will keep the audience mesmerized throughout the show.

Highlights will include Louis Prima’s “Sing, Sing, Sing” played by the jazz ensemble complete with swing dancers; Symphonic Dances from “Fiddler on the Roof”; Russian Sailor’s dance, complete with Russian Sailors; tenor soloist James Perkowski singing “Vesti la Giubba” from Pagliacchi; the hauntingly beautiful “Irish Tune from County Derry (Danny Boy), and much, much more!

This special event is made possible by the Community Foundation of Broward County, the Broward County Board of County Commissioners as recommended by the Broward Cultural Council, and Pride South Florida.
